THE

FRIEND.

A

RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

VOLUME XLIII.

PHILADELPHIA:

PRINTED BY WILLIAM H. PILE,

1870.

INDEX.

Advices. Extracts from "A Collection of Christian and Brotherly," 134. 139. 147.
Afflicted Christians. Extract entitled, 45.
Affliction. On the benefit of, 34. 45.
Our Heavenly Father's method of help in, 207.
Encouragement to those under, 308.
Africa. Account of recent explorations by Dr. Livingstone in, 116. 122. 358. 394.
Notice of the occurrence of copal in the great desert of, 147.
Extensive locality of fossil wood in the desert of, 181.
Agriculture. Effect of pine trees in drying the soil, 68.
On the advantage of sheltering cattle in winter, 182.
Use of carbolic acid in destroying insects, &c., on trees, 221.
A plea on behalf of farmer's wives and daughters, 261.
Value of raw hide to farmers, 270.
Aiker, John. Anecdote of, 239.
Air. Effects produced on by breathing, 173. 177. 185.
Observations on the dust particles in the, 317.
On the necessity for systematic arrangements in public buildings for a supply of pure, 354.
Air pump. Account of the invention of, by Otto Guericke, 212.
Alaska. The fur seal fishing of, described, 278. 282.
Aleutian islands. Notice of the aboriginal inhabitants of, 389.
Alexander II. of Russia. Anecdote of, concerning the emancipation of serfs, 407.
Algeria. Note on the extensive workings of iron ore in, 180.
Alphabet. Observations on the history of the Irish, 283. 290. 297. 306.
Allen, William. Extract from upon seeking Truth in natural science, 124.
America. Discovery of, by the Chinese, 45.
Notice of ancient rock dwellings of an aboriginal race in, 134.
Anecdote of Prof. O. M. Mitchell, 205. of a distressed business man, 370.
of Alexander II. of Russia, 407.
Animals. On the advantage of sheltering domestic, in winter, 182.
Notes on the possession of reason by, 398.
Antiquities. On the crocodile caves of Egypt, 2.
Recent discovery of Moabitish, 251.
Description of ancient rock dwellings in Arizona, 134.
Arctic regions. Observations on the gradual depopulation of the, 343.
Arizona. Account of ancient rock dwellings in, 134.
Account of the Papagoria desert in, 197. 204.
Arsenic. Presence of, in certain red dyes used on hosiery, 171.
Atlantic cable. Observations on the working of the, 333.
Asia. Narrative of a recent winter journey across the table-land of Central, 210. 217. 226. 235.
Assyrians and their kings. Notes on the history of, as connected with Palestine, 361. 369. 377. 385. 397. 402. 409.
Attractions for the young. Extract entitled, 285.
Auk. Observations on the extinction of the great, 155.
Note on the egg of the great, 156.
Aurora Borealis. Observations on the display of 1st mo. 3d, 1870, 158.
Australia. Diminution of the rain fall in, caused by cutting down forests, 254.
"Awake to righteousness and sin not." Essay entitled, 69.

Babylon. Description of spiritual, (continued from p. 402, vol. xlii.) 10. 21. 54.
Balloon voyage in Michigan. Account of a perilous, 124.
Baptism. John Simpson's remarks on the necessity of true, 52.
On the disputed authenticity of two texts in the authorized version respecting, 198.
On true, 313. 321.
Barclay's Apology. Anecdote in relation to, and comments upon, 243.
Extract from on the doctrine of justification, 351.
Barclay, John. Extract from, 54. 77. 124.
Letter of, on expensiveness of furniture, &c., in Friends' houses, 203.
Observations of, on the state of the Society of Friends, 347. 375.
Barclay, Lydia Ann. Extract from, 303.
Bayly, William. Extract from, on Justification, 365.
Bible. The testimony of, to another witness for its own truth, 335.
Bible Association of Friends in America. Circular of, 47. 54. 63. 70. 78.
Bible and Tract Distributing Society. Statement respecting the, 93.
Birds. Dr. Trimble's remarks on the usefulness of various, in the destruction of insects, 162.
Observations on the pewees, 6.
Anecdote of canary, 12.
Notes on the Red-tailed Hawk, 140.
Notes on the Great Auk, 155.
Account of a robin roost, 239.
Notes on house-wrens, 276.
Notes on "Bob White," 285.
On the ingenuity desplayed by the yellow poll wood warbler towards the egg of the cowbird, 309.
Notes on several of the early spring and summer, 310. 314. 324.
Notes on the sun-birds of Singapore, 354.
Account of the edible nests of a Borneo swallow, 375.
Blasting of Blossom Rock in the harbor of San Francisco. Account of the, 340.
"Boasted March of Intellect." Essay entitled, "The, 53.
Boiler Explosions. Observations on a possible cause of, 156.
Books. Christian advice in regard to, 173.
Death-bed advices in regard to reading romances and idle, 195.
Book Notices. "Man in Genesis and in Geology," &c., 39.
"From the Crib to the Cross," &c., 87.
"The Pilgrim's Progress," &c., in words of one syllable, 87.
"Good Health. A Journal of Physical and Mental culture," 127.
"Practical Farmer and Rural Advertiser," 159.
"Report of the Fifth Conference of Teachers and Delegates from Friends' First-day Schools in the United States," 190.
Comments on the above, 206. 242.
"Memorials of Rebecca Jones," new edition, 216.
"Barclay's Apology," Manchester edition, 243.
Penn Monthly Magazine, 246.
"The Advocate of Peace," 246.
Penn's "Rise, Progress and Key," 277.
"Glimpses by Sea and Land," 320.
"Universal Pronouncing Dictionary of Biography and Mythology," by Joseph Thomas, M.D., 359.
Bowne, Samuel. Anecdote of, and comments, 158.
Bread. Account of discovery of in an oven at Pompeii, 102.
"Breaking the will." Extract entitled, 275.
Breathing. Observations on, 173. 177. 185.
Bridge across the East River. Account of the foundation for the tower of, 373.
"Broken Cisterns of Human Knowledge." Essay entitled. "The, 178.
Buddhism. The profession of by the Chinese, 153.
Observations on in Tartary, 227. 234.
Building material. On the use of paper as a, 27.
Burial-grounds. Recommendations in reference to, in Paris, 39.
Burling, Catharine. Observations of, on reading romances and idle books, 195.
Burnyeat, John. Extract from, 102.
Business. Remarks on the temptation to and danger of speculation in, 126. 138.
Observations on the injury to health incurred in various kinds of, 363.
Butter chemically considered, 29. 37.

Cactus of the American desert. Brief account of the, 197. 204.
Caesium. Observations on the discovery and properties of, 171.
California. Notes on the discovery of the precious metals in, 65.
Account of a large grape vine in, 140.
Notice of Japanese colonists in, 236.
The hunting of the sea-otter on the coast of, 263. 265.
Account of the Indians of, 372. 379. 387.
Camel. Observations on the Bactrian, 217.
Cannon balls. Observations on the flight of, 34.
Cañons. Observations on the mode of formation of, 316.
Cañon of the Colorado. Perilous adventure in the, 238. 241.
Capital punishment. Notice of petitions for the abolition of, in Pennsylvania, 183.
Capper, Mary. Extracts from, 140. 238. 348. 371.
Extract from, on the ground of faith, 342.
On learning in the school of Christ, 348.
On the internal evidence, 358.
Carbolic acid. Account of some of the properties and uses of, 147. 221. 225.
Cave at Corydon, Ind. Notice of an unexplored, 229.
near Dubuque Io. Account of a, 388.
Caverns. Notes on fossil contents of the Gibraltar, 154.
Ceylon. Brief account of the "Eve's apple tree" of, 204.
Charity and liberality. S. Crisps' encouragement of, 183.
Geo. Fox's advice in regard to, 188.
Child. Anecdote of the influence of a, 15.
Child's meditations and maturer thoughts." Essay entitled "The, 182.
Children. Advice to in regard to obedience to parents, 15.
On the proper qualifications of persons engaged in educating, 39.
Concern of N. York Yearly Meeting in relation to the restraining and instructing of, 61.
Observations of J. Woolman on the education of, 85.
Margaret Jackson's remarks on instilling the principles of virtue in, 118.
Extract from Sam'l Fothergill in relation to, 132.
Observations in reference to sobriety in, 133.
Christian and brotherly advice to, 147.
Religious advice to, in reference to fashionable dress, 221.
in Christ. Encouragement to, 190.
On educating the will of, 275.
Hints upon rendering home attractive to, 285.
Remarks on purity of life in, 326.
China. Sketch of the geography and routes of commerce of, 161. 169.
Sketch of Peking, 193. 202.
On the size and number of city walls in, 325.
Chinese. Notes on the religions of the, 145. 153. 203.
Methods of preparing certain articles of food by the, 380.
restaurant. Description of a, 412.
Discovery of America by, 45.
Christ. Observations to those who are looking for the personal appearance of, 82.
On the inward witness for, in the heart, 239. 289.
Christians. Encouragement to afflicted, 45.
Church of Christ. Three methods by which the enemy is attempting to destroy the, 195.
Epistle of Geo. Fox concerning gospel order in the, 219.
Epistle of Isaac Penington concerning discipline in the, 310.
The dignity of the, stands in the life and power of Truth, 355.
Churchman, John. Some weighty expressions of, concerning the purity of the testimonies of Truth, 230.
Remarks of, in reference to the use of the plain language, 286.
Extract from, on retirement before the Lord, 359.
Claridge, Richard. Extract from, in relation to religious activity, 162.
Extract from, on Justification, 365.
Climate. Effect of removing trees upon, in Australia, 254.
Closet devotions. Observations on, 302.
Clouds. Explanation of the varying color of the, 269.
Coal oil. On the causes of explosions of, 148.
On the necessity of State inspection of commercial, 255.
The means of testing the quality and avoiding explosions of, 274.
Coal-mining. Loss of life in, 51.
Statistics of the production of, in 1866, in Great Britain, 68.
Recent discovery of, on the shores of the Caspian Sea, 190.
"Cobwebs." Essay entitle', 51.
Coinage of Great Britain. Observations on the testing of the, 250.
Colors most readily distinguished, 220.
Colley, Thomas. Remarks of, on silent worship, 386.

Concerning the ministers and ministry of the gospel. I. Penington's remarks, 62.
making our calling and election sure, 102.
offerings to God, in prayer and supplication, 371.
Conformity to the world. Essay entitled, 77.
Confucius. Extracts from the sayings of, 145.
Copal. Note on the sources and history of, 147.
Copper. Abundant supply of in New Hampshire, 180.
Cotton. The use of in respirators as a protection from noxious emanations, 317.
Council. Translation of anathemas of the recent Œcumenical at Rome, 380.
Country walk. Notes on objects seen in a, 219.
Courteousness. On, 26.
Crisp, Stephen. Remarks upon practical charity and liberality by, 183.
Epistle of encouragement to Friends to be patient and faithful, 279.
Crocodile caves of Moabdeh. Account of, 2.
Cross, On the necessity of and delight in bearing the, 292.
Cuttle-fish. Notes on the, 299.

Daily soul-work. Extract entitled, 396.
Darien Canal. The advantage of in shortening the routes of commerce, 295.
D'Aubigne's History of the Reformation in Ireland. Observations on errors in, 322. 331. 341. 349.
Deaf and dumb. Letter in reference to teaching methods of articulation to the, 244.
Deafness. On some of the causes and means of preventing, 137. 149.
Death. Method of recognizing in case of doubt, 181.
Death-Bed Repentance. On, 110.
Deed. The acknowledgment of, a part of the, 188.
Desert of the Papagoria. Brief account of the, 197, 204.
"Desirable Experiences." Essay entitled, 412.
Diamonds. Applications of, in the arts, 50.
Digestion of food. Practical observations on the process of, 194. 201. 209.
Disappointments and resignation. Wm. Penn's remarks on, 299.
"Distinction between the faith which is of man, and the faith which is of God." Extract entitled, "A," 413.
Dockray, Abigail. Extract from, 280.
Drama. On the indecency of the, 242.
Dress. Testimony of Sophia Hume in regard to plainness in, 14.
Observations of a person of high rank in Europe regarding plainness of, 63.
Observations on the disregard of plainness of, among Friends, 77.
Testimony of Thomas Clarkson in relation to plainness of, 117.
of children. M. Jackson's remarks concerning, 118.
Christian and brotherly advice in relation to, 139.
Observations of Margaret Lucas and Joseph Pike in reference to, and comments, 157.
Remark of an American envoy concerning changes in, by Friends, 159.
Extract from "The Episcopalian" upon, and observations on the duty of Friends in relation to, 199.
Questions and answers concerning Friends' testimony to plainness of, 251.
Drift for life in the cañon of the Colorado. Account of a, 238. 241.
Driven from attention to the still, small voice. Extract entitled, 371.
Dudley, Mary. Extract from in reference to simple obedience to apprehended duty, 280.
Dust of the atmosphere and disease. Observations on the probable connection between the, 317.
Dynamite. Observations on, 34.
Deaths.—Parker Askew, 96; Huldah Atwater, 264; Sarah Alsop, 112; Martha Bacon, 8; Ruth Battey, 112; Rachel B. Barton, 96; Thomas Bowerman, 168, Mary Borton, 176; Abraham Bonsall, 200; William P. Bedell, 256; Mary W. Burton, 336; Gideon C. Bedell, 344; Jesse Beck, 352; William Brownell, 352. 368; Delitha Bundy, 416; Ann Cope, 120; Oliver Caulk, 216; Joel Cadbury, 256; Eliza Ann Collins, 296; Joseph Cope, 320; Sarah Emlen Cresson, 328; William Coale, 360; Anna C. Cooper, 376; Annie R. Cooper, 384; Lydia Chambers, 408; Mary Darnell, 328; Josiah B. Evans, 72; Thomas Evens, Sr., 160; Jacob R. Elfreth, 344; Edwin Embree, 368; Mary Field, 16; Peninah Flanner, 152; Mary D. Griffen, 128; Elihu Griffen, 128; Mary T. Gibbons, 152; Nathan Haines, 40; Arthur Haines, 96; Hudson B. Haines, 112; Margaret Hobson, 128; Elisha Hollingsworth, 160; Agnes Haines, 160; Rachel Hoag, 224; Sarah Hole, 240; Mary A. Haines, 272; Francis Heald, 291; Mary Jones, 216; John Jones, 416; Samuel Knight, 144; Elizabeth C. Knight, 256; Mary King, 256; Henry Lupton, 176; Sarah H. Lippincott, 184; Isaac T. Larkin, 224; Nathan Leeds, 248; Salkeld Larkin, 360; Elizabeth B. Lowry, 384; Mary W. Moore, 72; Rebecca Michener, 288; Clayton Newbold, 416; Sarah Phipps, 8; Rachel Patterson, 8; Ruthanna E. Paxson, 40; Lydia N. Price, 248; Anna Maria Roberts, 144; Elizabeth Roberts, 248; Elizabeth Richardson, 264; Amy Rea, 320; Charles L. Scott, 416; Lydia W. Stokes, 16; Mary D. Scarlett, 144; Mary Stratton, 152; Mary Ann Sharpless, 168; Richard M. Shoemaker, 184; Elizabeth Stroud, Jr., 288; Susanna Stevenson, 310; Isaac Stokes, 328; Rebecca W. Shotwell, 400; Lydia Thomas, 184; Rachel H. Tomlinson, 200; Mary Ann Test, 272; Eliza H. Vaux, 200; Anna Bella C. Wistar, 88; B. Wyatt Wistar, 88; Edith B. Walter, 112; Richard Wetherill, 224; Samuel Warner, 256; Joseph C. Walker, 360.

Ear. On the structure of the, 125. 130. 137. 149.
Earthquake waves. Observations on the velocity and extent of, 142.
Earthquakes. The agency of, in the economy of nature, 259.
in S. America. Oceanic disturbances produced by the recent, 414.
Early civilization and church history of Ireland. Observations on the, 283. 290. 297. 306. 322. 331. 341. 349.
East River bridge. The foundation of a tower of the, 373.
Earthworms. Note on the habits of, 30.
Earth. Distance to which the heat of the sun penetrates the, 254.
Eclipse of the sun. Accounts of the recent, 4. 9.
Editorial.—Observations on the recognition by the founders of the Methodist denomination of the Divine origin of true ministry, and on the need of a renewed qualification for its exercise, 7; Observation on the accounts of the late eclipse, 15; Comments on entering the Forty-third volume, 23; On the inability of the human intellect or its acquirements to confer a true knowledge of divine things, 30; Notice of a work entitled, "Man in Genesis and in Geology," &c., 39; Comments on the present state of our Religious Society, 47; Observations on the recent gold gambling in New York, 54; Brief notice of the proceedings of Ohio Yearly Meeting, 63; Comments on a defence of a late action of the "Friends' Foreign Mission Association" in England, 71; Observations upon the exercise of the discipline by members of the Ohio Yearly Meeting in Iowa, 78; On the demoralization attending the observance of public holidays, and the propriety of discontinuing them, particularly that set apart for thanksgiving, 87; Notice of the action of the "Associated Executive Committee of Friends on Indian affairs" in relation to Agents of the Central Superintendency, 87; Comments on works entitled "From the Crib to the Cross," &c., and "The Pilgrim's Progress" in words of one syllable, 87; On the futility of man's efforts to devise a system of principles for the regulation of the heart, and the simplicity and efficiency of the government of Christ, 94; On the subordinate position of the Scriptures as a rule of conduct, and the danger attending the Bible school movement among Friends, 103; Observations on an article entitled "The Quakers," in the "Westminster Review," 110; Extracts from the minutes of North Carolina Yearly Meeting, 119; Extracts from minutes of Ohio Yearly Meeting, 126; Notice of "Good Health, a Journal of Physical and Mental culture," 127; Comments on a recent outrage upon a teacher of Freedmen in North Carolina, 134; Observations on the fallacy of the doctrine of predestination as applied to the heathen, 135; On manifest evidences of degeneracy in the Society of Friends in England, and the sophistry used to justify them, 142, 159; Remarks upon the beginning of the year 1870, 150; Comments on the unscriptural character of the doctrine of justification by faith as recently promulgated, 151; Explanation in reference to First-day schools in North Carolina, 159; Notice of the "Practical Farmer and Rural Advertizer," 159; Extracts from a late address before the "Congregational Union" in England, and observations on the spread of sound doctrine in relation to ministry among different religious bodies, 167; Reply to a communication advocating the unscriptural doctrine of immediate justification and salvation upon an intellectual belief in Christ, 175; Comments on an article in the "Episcopalian" recommending secular employments to the clergy, 183: Observations on a "Report of the Fifth Conference of Teachers and Delegates from Friends' First-day schools," &c., 190, 206; Remarks on dress, 199; Observations on christian fellowship, 199; The plainness of Friends in dress, language, &c., a testimony against pride and vanity, and a practical safeguard against many temptations, 207; On the susceptibility of children to the influence of example, and the responsibility resting upon instructors of youth, 215; Notice of the "Association for the care of Colored Orphans," 215; Remarks on the Adelphi School, 216; On the importance of knowing individually an establishment in the Truth, and the danger of being deceived by false likenesses of it, 223; Remarks on the education of colored people in Delaware, 223; Statement of the expenditure of money received for the aid of colored people in N. Carolina, 231; On the zeal of our early Friends in promulgating and defending the Truth through the press and upon improving opportunities for disseminating Friends' approved works in the present day, 231; On the need of knowing the authorship of communications to "The Friend," 239; Notice of certain periodicals, &c., 246; Notice of "The Advocate of Peace," and comments on the radical defects in the principles it supports, 246; On contending for the Truth, 247; On the prevalence of views upon the doctrine of justification differing from those of the early Friends, and the imperishable nature of their principles, 255; On the frequency of serious accidents from kerosene oil, 255; Remarks in reference to the approaching Yearly Meeting, 271; Account of the proceedings of the late Yearly Meeting, 287. 295; On the true qualification for usefulness in the church, 295; On an apparent movement in the community at large towards materialism, and the doctrine of the infallibility of the pope of Rome, 303; Observations on the doctrines of a new Hindoo sect now being preached in London by its leader, 319. 335; Notice of "Glimpses by Sea and Land," 320; Observations on the uncertainty of human expectations, and the wisdom of a life of obedience to the Holy Spirit, 326; List of Correspondents of the Monthly Meetings of Philada. Yearly Meeting, 327. 352; Notice of a testimony by a Hindoo in London, condemning professing christians for engaging in war, 335; Comments on remarks made in the late General Assembly of Presbyterians respecting the "Quaker" policy of the Goverment towards the Indians, 335; The followers of Christ not to contend with men of the world in their own spirit, 343; On the doctrine of Justification as held by Friends, 351. 356. 365. 367; Notice of a Dictionary of Biography, &c., by Dr. Joseph Thomas, 359; Extracts from and comments on a published account of "The great Damascus revival," 359; On the breaking out of hostilities between France and Prussia, and the agency of professed ministers of the gospel in the occurrence of wars, 391; Notice to subscribers, and list of agents, 415.
Education. Remarks on the proper qualifications of persons engaged in, 39.
Observations on the danger of bestowing too much thought upon, 53.
The qualification for true ministry entirely independent of, 54.
Egypt. Account of a visit to a crocodile tomb in, 2.
Notice of the extensive occurence of fossil wood near Cairo, 181.
Observations on the study of Islamism in, 395.
Electricity. Application of, to lighting public lamps, 174.
Elephant. Anecdote of the sagacity of the, 85.
Emlen, James. Letter of, to a teacher in Westtown Boarding School, 318.
England. Notes on a migration of "lady birds" to, 53.
Account of tin-mining in, 58.
On the influence of the gulf stream in moderating the temperature of, 375.
Epistle of women Friends, in 1668, to their friends and sisters in the Truth, 41.
of George Fox to Friends of the Ministry in 1685, 150.
of Daniel Wheeler to Friends of York Quarterly Meeting, 170. of John Richardson to Friends in Nantucket, 138. of London Y. Meeting of women Friends, 1776, to the Quarterly Meeting of women Friends in Wales, 274.
of Stephen Crisp encouraging Friends to patience and faithfulness, 279.
of Elizabeth Smith to Burlington Quarterly Meeting of woman Friends, 1772, 284. of Yearly Meeting of Philadelphia, 1870, to its members, 305.
Observations on the above, 317. 326. 366.
of Isaac Penington to woman Friends respecting church discipline, 310.
of Geo. Fox concerning gospel order and admonition, 219.

Epistle of Geo. Fox to Friends to take heed to the light of Christ, 382.
Evans, Elizabeth. Memorial concerning, 97.
Evans, William. Memorial concerning, 105. 113.
Evans, Thomas. Reference to warnings by, 158.
Extract from, on superficial religion, 260.
"Exhortation both to learn and preach the law of God." Extract entitled, 189.
"Exhortation, &c. The end of the law is obedience." Extract entitled, 205.
Eye. Observations on the anatomy and diseases of the, 233.
On the nature and method of treating near-sightedness, 401.

Faith. Questions and answers concerning true, 218.
The victory that overcometh the world, 276.
Farm animals. On the advantage of sheltering in winter, 182.
Farmer's wives and daughters. A plea on behalf of, 261.
Fast. Lines on a true, 260.
Files. Description of the method of making hand-cut, 213.
Fire caused by heat of the sun condensed by a globe. 90.
Fire bricks. On the value of bauxite for the manufacture of, 332.
Fish. Description of the business of freezing, in Sandusky City, 132.
Notice of different poisonous substances used in capturing, 355.
Anecdotes of the sword, 18.
Fishes in the streams of the southern Alleghenies. Notes on, 106.
Account of the mode of swimming by, 212.
The dying colors of the dolphin, 293.
Notes on amphibious, 293.
Fleas. Notes on trained, 52.
Food. On the utilization of waste, 22.
On the digestion of, 194. 201. 209.
On the preservation of meat by carbolic acid, 222. 225.
Account of the Chinese method of preparing some articles of, 380.
How to cook vegetables, 406.
Forbearance. Encouragement of, 407.
Fothergill, John. Extracts from in relation to ministry, 23.
Samuel. Letter of, in reference of C. Cayley, Jr., 268.
Extracts from, 54. 91. 116. 124. 391.
Extract from, on creaturely activity in religion, 236.
Extract from, entitled, "Gather the children," 132.
"Foundation that standeth sure. Nothing but an empty profession." Extract entitled, 156.
Fowl-house. Account of a perambulating, 379.
Fox, George. Extracts from, 22. 84. 150.
Advice of, to those who marry, and upon liberality, 188.
Divinely required to use the plain language, 202.
Epistle of, concerning gospel order and admonition, 219.
Epistle of, to Friends to take heed to the light of Christ, 382.
Exhortation of, to Friends in the ministry, 390.
Observations of, respecting ministers and the ministry, 277.
Account of, taken from Thomas' Biographical Dictionary, 357. 362.
Fox, George, the Younger. "The Word of God the christian's guide," by, 194.
Fox, Maria. Letter of, to a young convert, 165.
Remarks of, in relation to christian fellowship, 198.
Comments on the above, 199.
Freedmen. Statement and appeal on behalf of the, 108. 115.
Observations upon the recent cruel treatment of, in some portions of the Southern States, 134.
Friends' Association for the relief of. Extracts from letters addressed to, 119. 131. 140. 157. 204. 228. 238.
Statement of expenditures on behalf of, in North Carolina, 231.
Statement in reference to the Hampton Normal School for, 237.
Notice of the efforts for the improvement of, in Delaware, 223.
Friends. Religious communications addressed to, 6. 29. 36. 51. 53. 57. 69. 77. 82. 133. 149. 154. 158. 162. 164. 178. 198. 207. 221. 226. 237. 249. 251. 261. 270. 301. 315. 375.
Friends. Observations on the present state of the ministry among, 36.
General Epistle of women, in 1668, 41.
Observations of S. Grellet in reference to, 51. 68.
Comments on the present state of the Society of, 47. 78. 266. 285. 301. 347.
Notice of the efforts of, among the western Indians, 69. 76. 81. 87. 214.
Remarks in reference to the Bible school movement among, 103.
Comments on an article in the "Westminster Review," in relation to, 110.
Observations in reference to the receding of members among, from the spiritual views of the early, 57.
Reasons for the non-observance of "thanksgiving" days by, 87.
Objections to First-day schools among, 155.
Remarks upon the joining of, with benevolent associations, &c., 140.
Observations upon manifest evidences of degeneracy among, 142.
Letter of Daniel Wheeler giving a picture of the Society of, 148.
Belief of Daniel Wheeler in regard to the effects of unfaithfulness among, in retarding the spread of the gospel among the heathen, 170.
Observations on the payment of taxes for war-purposes by, 149. 267.
On the testimony of, to the use of the plain language, 202. 286.
Observations upon "religious activity" among, 154. 162. 237.
Belief of that outward knowledge and good desires are not a qualification for the ministry, 178.
Glance at the condition of the Society of, in England, and the means of promoting its welfare, 179.
Extract from a letter in reference to the unchangeable nature of the principles of, 222.
The zeal of the early, in publishing and defending the Truth through the press, 231.
Reasons why the "mission" of, is not ended, 253.
On church discipline among, 261.
Departure from obedience to the inward manifestations of Truth the cause of desolations among, 301.
On the doctrine of, in relation to justification, 351. 356. 365. 367.
Friendship. The immortality of true, 294.
Fruit-growing. Remarks on the usefulness of birds in, 162.
The usefulness of toads in gardens and vineyards, 294.

Galileo. Account of the private life of, 309.
"Gather the Fragments." Essays entitled, 258. 268. 274. 284. 294. 308. 330.
"Gather the children." Extract entitled, 132.
Geographer's view of 1869. A, 251.
Geology. Notes on the recent discoveries of the remains of the mastodon, 139.
Observations on modification of the theories of, by the discovery of living animals of ancient type at the bottom of the sea, 172.
Extensive occurrence of fossil-wood near Cairo, 181.
On the occurrence of reindeer bones in the Mississippi Valley, 261.
Geological notes on the Southern Alleghanies, 101.
Geography of China. Sketch of the, 161. 169.
Gibbons, Hannah. Memorial concerning, 121. 129.
Observations of, in reference to the Yearly Meeting 1857, 263.
Selections from the diary of, 333. 341. 346. 353. 364. 374. 378. 388. 393. 410.
Gibraltar. Notes on fossil remains found in caverns in, 154.
Glaciers. Usefulness of, in the economy of nature, 98.
Glass. Observations on the effect of sun light upon the color of, 326.
Glue. Recipe for waterproof, 34.
"Go not after them that forsake the covenant of Truth." Essay entitled, 164.
Goodyear, Charles. Anecdote of the invention of vulcanized rubber by, 27.
Gold. Comparison of the value of paper currency with, 126.
"Gospel the power of God unto salvation." Essay entitled. "The" 198.
Gosse, Emily. Observations on sentiments contained in a memoir of, 227.
Gossiping. Observations on, 84.
Grape-vine. Account of a large California, 140.
Grave-yards. Discipline of Philada. Yearly Meeting in reference to monuments in, 222.
"Greatest of these is charity." Essay entitled. "The, 157.
Greenland. Account of ancient architectural ruins in, 343.
Grellet, Stephen. Extracts from, 6. 51. 61. 63. 67. 68. 124.
Griffith, John. Extracts from, 91.
Observations of, on the qualifications for usefulness in the church, 249.
Grubb, Sarah. Extracts from on education, 39.
Grubb, Sarah [L.] Religious experience of, in early life, 203.
Expressions of, on humility and preservation, 407.
Gulf-stream. On the influence of the, in tempering the climate of N. W. Europe, 375.

Hair-dyes. Instance of the danger of using, 189.
Haiti. Notes on, 109.
Hand. Observations on educating equally the right and left, 302.
Hashish. The effects of, on the human system, 44.
"Have we got below the surface of things." Extract from T. Evans, entitled, 260.
Hawk. Notes on the Red-tailed, 140.
"He hearkened diligently with much heed." Essay entitled, 57.
"He that believeth shall not make haste." Essay entitled, and comments, 402.
Heald, Francis. Account of last illness and death of, 291.
Health. On the injury to, by violent physical exercise, 51.
On the injury to, by continuous brain labor, 52.
Suggestions in reference to the prevention of deafness, 137.
Injurious effects of watering city streets to, 181.
Old Humphrey's prescription for obtaining, 195.
On the construction and diseases of the eye, 233.
On the necessity of a full supply of pure air to, 185.
On the process of digestion as connected with, 194. 201. 209.
Sleep and sleeplessness as connected with, 257.
The promotion of, by walking, 300.
On the advantage of regular occupation to, 354. 363.
On the treatment of near-sightedness, 401.
Hervey, James. Anecdote of, 244.
Hindoo. Observations on doctrines now preached in London by a learned, 319.
The practice of war by professing Christians condemned by a, 335.
Hiram and the Tyrians. Account of, 338. 345.
"Hireling." Extract entitled. "The," 124.
History of the Reformation in Ireland, by D'Aubigné. Remarks on errors in the, 322. 331. 341. 349.
Hoag, Joseph. Remarks of, when a child, in reference to ministry, 159.
Hobbies. On, 51.
Holy Spirit, the true key and interpreter of the Scriptures. The, 230.
Holy Scriptures. The emptiness of the literal knowledge of the, compared with the teachings of Divine Grace, 133.
Advice in regard to discouraging books tending to create doubt in regard to the, 173.
On the authenticity of two passages in, respecting baptism, 198.
Questions and answers concerning the true use and place of the, 229.
Horses. Salt and ashes recommended for, 172.
Carbolic acid as a protection to, against flies, 225.
Hosiery. Notice of the presence of arsenic in red dyed, 171.
Hour Glass. First manufacture of the, 50.
Houses. Method of rendering impermeable to water, 173.
Observations on the necessity of ventilation in, 185.
On plainness of furniture in, 117. 203. 206.
Method of construction of, by Japanese, 236.
"How to build." Extract entitled, 107.
How to grow in grace. Extract entitled, 339.
Hull, Henry. Testimony of, to the duty of religious instruction, 70.
Human learning not advantageous to the gospel minister, 54.
The danger of relying upon, in the work of religion, 133. 178.
Humble yet exalted state. C. Payton's remarks on the 52.

Humboldt, Alexander Von. Prediction by, of the discovery of coal near the Caspian Sea realized, 190.
Hume, Sophia. Brief account of, 403.
Extracts from, 14.
Letters of, 330. 370. 403. 414.
Humility. Extract from Thomas A'Kempis upon, 244.
Hydrogen. On the metallic nature of, 308.

Ice. Uses of vast masses of, in the economy of nature, 98.
Observations on the formation of, in deep water at the Detroit Water Works, 164.
Description of Carré's machine for making, 250.
Caves in Oregon. Description of the, 330.
Independence and contentment in humble life. Example of, 239.
India. Brief account of an eight years pestilence in, 60.
Indian Mound near St. Louis. Recent removal of, 284.
Indians. Account of a council held with the Osages by Supt. E. Hoag, 69. 76.
Report of Enoch Hoag, Supt., in reference to tribes of, in Kansas, 81.
Notice by the "Associated Ex. Com. of Friends on Indian Affairs," to Agents on the Central Superintendency for, 87.
Extracts from the Minutes of the "Associated Executive Committee on Indian Affairs," 214. of California. Account of the habits of life, &c. of the, 372. 379. 387.
Infallibility of the Pope. Dogmas of the recent Council concerning the, 380.
Insanity caused by novel reading, 165. 266.
Insects. Habits of the "nigua," 28.
Observations upon carnivorous, 36.
Habits of the garden spider and its ichneumon, 42.
Notes on a migration of 'lady birds' to England, 53.
The work of two beetles, 75.
Value of carbolic acid in destroying, 221.
Observations on Cuban fire-flies, 278.
Large grasshoppers of Borneo, 293.
On checking the increase of, by other insects, 301.
Notes on spiders, 293. 299.
Instinct of an East Indian bee, 356.
Observation on the consumption of, by one toad, 371.
Destruction of animal life by gnats, 388.
Instance of apparent intelligence in ants, 406.
Instinct and reason in animals. Observations on, 398.
Institute for Colored Youth. Statement and appeal on behalf of, 84.
Intemperance. Anecdote of the danger of social wine drinking, 44.
Iona. Historical reference to, 341.
Ireland. The early civilization and Church History of, 283. 290. 297. 306. 322. 331. 341. 349.
Iron. Permeability of, to carbonic oxide and other gases, 156.
ore. Note on the extensive workings of, in Algeria, 180.
Welding of, caused by friction, 254.
Observations on the deterioration of, in sea water, 254.
"Iron furnaces and their analogies." Essay entitled, 261.
"Is it out of order to wait upon the Lord." Essay entitled, 334.

Jackson, Margaret. Extracts from the letters and papers of, 89. 99.
Remarks of, in reference to instructing and restraining children, 118.
Jaffray, Alexander. Extract from the diary of, 302. 339. 399. 408.
Japanese colonists in California. Brief notice of, 236.
Jeddo. Brief account of, 382.
Jones, Ann. Extracts from a letter of, in relation to qualifications for service in the Church, 295.
Jordan, Richard. Observations on a prediction of, in reference to the Society of Friends, 271.
Juan Fernandez. Notice of the establishment of a colony on, 175.
Judge and the poor African woman." Narrative, entitled, "The, 186.
Justification. Questions and answers respecting, 218.
Epistle of Philadelphia yearly meeting concerning, 305.
On the Doctrine of Friends, in regard to, 351. 356. 365. 367. 381.
Jute. On the cultivation and manufacture of, 294.

Keep within the limitation of Truth, 259.
Kelty, Mary Ann. Extract from, on guarding against excitement, 388.
Extract from, on the denial of self, 400.
Observation of, on religious activity, 412.
Kempis, Thomas A. Extracts from, upon resisting temptations, 220.
Extract from, in reference to humility, 244.
Extract from, on perseverance, 255.
Extract from, on mutual forbearance and mutual instruction, 260.
Extract from, on the appearance of Christ in in the heart, 267.
Extract from, on the necessity of bearing the cross, 292.
Kingdom of God. There is but one road to the, 140.
Kirkham, John. Account of a young woman in the Isle of Man, narrated to, 196.
Kite, Mary. Letters of, 1. 11. 17. 25. 33. 42.
Knight, Alice. Remarks of M. Lovett upon the death of, 197.

Lake in Lancaster Co., Pa. Notice of a subterranean, 334.
Lamp explosions. Observations on the causes of, and modes of preventing, 148. 274.
Lancaster, Lydia. Encouragement by, to the young in Christ, 190.
Land slide in Austria, and appearance of a new Lake. Account of a, 212.
Language. The use of the plain by Geo. Fox a divine requiring, 202.
Incident in the Life of John Churchman, inciting to faithfulness in the use of the plain, 286.
On the grammatical propriety of the plain, 328.
Observations of the diversity of form in, 365.
"Lead us not into Temptation." Extract entitled, 188.
Learning. S. Grellet's remarks upon infidelity among teachers of, 67.
A few hints in regard to, 124.
Leather refuse. Use of, in making soles for shoes, 22.
"Let love be without dissimulation." Extract entitled, 251.
"Let him that thinketh he standeth, take heed lest he fall." Essay entitled, 325.
Letter of Maria Fox, 165. Cornelius Cayley, Jr., 268. Samuel Fothergill, 268. Richard Shackleton, 355.
John Richardson to Friends in Nantucket, 138. of William Mott, 141. William Law, 258.
John Thorp, 308. James Emlen, 318. Sophia Hume, 330. 370. 403. 414.
Letter of John Barclay, on expensiveness of furniture, &c., in Friends' houses, 203.
Letter of Hannah (Pusey) Gibbons, 333. 341.
Letter from the Osage country, 69.
Letters of Mary Kite, written in North Carolina, 1. 11. 17. 25. 33. 42.
Lewis, Enoch. Remarks on the grammatical propriety of the plain language, by, 323.
Light of, in flames not due to solid particles, 164.
"Like principles lead to like practices." Essay entitled, 237.
Lilliputian Firemen. Extract entitled, 406.
Lithium. Observations on the discovery and properties of, 171.
Livingstone, Dr. David. Account of recent explorations in Africa, by, 116. 122. 358. 394.
Lobsters. On the trade in, 347.
"Lord! What wilt thou have me to do." Essay entitled, 253.
Love. The necessity of laboring with offenders, in the spirit of, 294.
Love and unity. Christian and brotherly advice on maintaining, 134.
Lovett, Mahlon L. Brief account and extracts from the memoranda of, 174. 181. 188. 197. 205.
Lucas, Margaret. Extract from, in reference to plainness and comments, 157.

Madeira. Observation on the disappearance of the grape disease in, 164.
Magdeburg Hemisphere. Account of the invention of the, 212.
Magnets. On the effect of tungsten in increasing the power of steel, 354.
Manufactures. Account of refuse substances utilized in various, 178. 187.
Marriage. Observations of Wm. Penn upon, 323.
Account of an Oriental illustrating a Scripture parable, 355.
Marriages. Joseph H. Branson, to Ruthanna Stratton, 64; Joel Cadbury, Jr., to Anna K. Lowry, 128; Harvey Thomas, to Lydia S. Willits, 160; Wilson Hirst, to Mary Ann McConnell, 176; Charles Gamble, to Elizabeth Thomas, 176; Amasa Negus, to Lydia Hoyle, 176; Charles Rhoads, to Beulah S. Morris, 288; Gilbert Congdon, to Ellen L. Smith, 328; Lewis Embree, to Lydia Ann Hawley, 360; Christopher H. Jones, to Rebecca R. Wilkins, 368; Samuel Trimble, to Mary L. Evans, 368; Joseph T. Shearman, to Anna Matlack, 368; Ephraim W. Holloway, to Semira Clementine Purviance, 392.
Mastodon. Notices of recent discoveries of the remains of the, in New Jersey and elsewhere, 139.
Meat. On the preservation of, by carbolic acid, in South America, 222. 225.
Memorial of Elizabeth Evans, 97. of William Evans, 105. 113. of Hannah Gibbons, 121. 129.
Metals. Interesting applications of the transparency of, 62.
discovered by Spectrum analysis. Observations on, 171.
Meteor. Account of a remarkable, 7.
Meyo. Observations on the zoology of, 350.
Mines. Historical incidents connected with the discovery of valuable, 65.
Mining. Loss of life in England, in coal, 51. 142.
Ministry. Observations of Job Scott on, 13.
Observations of John Fothergill on, 23.
Observations on the work of preparation for the, 36.
The qualifications for, independent of human acquirements, 54.
Answer of Isaac Penington, as to what is, 62.
Remarks of John Griffith in reference to silence in the, 91.
Experience of James Rigbie in the, 146.
Anecdote of Joseph Hoag, illustrating the qualifications for the, 159.
Observations on the payment of money in connection with the, 166.
Observations on the spread of sound doctrine in relation to, among different religious professors, 167. 183.
Thos. Roylands remarks on the, 173.
Outward knowledge and good desires not a sufficient qualification for, 178.
On acceptable, 190.
A rightly authorized, a great, but not the greatest gift to the Church, 195.
Questions and answers concerning the true call to, and work of the, 235.
The earnest warning of the apostle against deceivers in the work of the, 198.
Observations of George Fox on ministers and, 277.
Remarks of Ann Jones and George Withy, on the, and comments, 295.
Observations on the denial of self and fleshly wisdom required in the, 307.
The Spirit of Christ the only true spring of the, 337.
Exhortation of Geo. Fox to Friends in the, 390.
Mitchell, Prof. O. M. Anecdote of, 205.
Moab. Discovery of an ancient inscription in ancient, 251.
Translation of the above mentioned inscription, and notes, 404.
Moderation in dress and furniture, among Friends. Remarks on, 206.
Monomaniacs. Extract entitled, 93.
Moon. Notice of the measurement of the heat of, 84.
Moore, Susanna. Caution by, against reading hurtful books, 195.
Observations on the parentage of, 263.
Moose. Account of a large, recently killed in Michigan, 271.
Moss agates. Localities of, on the line of the Pacific Rail-Road, 3.
Mott, William. Letter of, to a relative, 141.
Mountains. The naturalist among the Southern Alleghany, 101. 166.
Mouse. Observations on a "singing," 166.
Music and dancing. Observations on the injurious effects of, 295.
"My Country Home." Essays entitled, 6. 11. 21. 36.

Natural History. (See also Birds, Insects, and Plants.) The Bactrian Camel, 217; Earthworms, 30; Wild Elephants, 85; A singing mouse, 166; Serpents and venomous snakes, 73. 83; Toads, 181. 294; Whales, 61; The Sea-otter, 263. 265; The fur Seal, 278. 282; Prairie dogs, 270; A large Moose, 271; Sea-turtles, 280; The dying colors of the Dolphin, 293; Jelly Fishes, 293; Tropical spiders, 293. 299; Amphibious Fish, 293; Curious Fishes, 293; The Mustang, 293; The flying Dragon of Borneo, 299; Cuttle Fish, 299; Sea Snakes, 299; A biting Shell-fish, 350; The horse-shoe Crab of Malacca, 358; A worm-eating Leech, 404.

Naturalist in the Southern Alleghenies. The, 101. 106.
Near-sightedness. On, 401.
Needles. Description of two curious, 269.
Nevada. Notice of hot springs in, 412.
New Hampshire. Notice of an extensive deposit of copper ore in, 180.
Nile. Observations of Dr. Livingstone on the sources of, 116.
Novels. Case of insanity produced by reading, 165. The reading of, discouraged by Friends, 173. Reasons for not reading, 266.

Obedience to known duty. The blessed effects of, 292.
Observations on truly believing in Christ, and the work of his spirit in the heart, 273. 281. 289.
Ordeals by fire and water, and judicial combats. Accounts of, 228. 234.
Outward display. Essay entitled, 117.
Owen, Dorothy. Testimony of the Yearly Meeting of Wales, 1794, concerning, 294.
Oysters. Notes on the business of canning, in Baltimore, 118.

Paper from Wood. Note on, 22.
Account of some novel applications of, 27.
rendered transparent by benzine, 44.
The manufacture of, from old rope, 183.
Paris. Notice of observations upon the flora and birds of, 62.
Parrett, John. Account of some conversations of, en ministry, 405.
Patient waiting. On, 276.
Patrick of Ireland. Observations on the birth-place of, 322. 331.
Payton, Catharine. Extracts from, 34. 52.
Peace of mind. How to be obtained, 37.
Peking. Brief account of the city of, 193. 202.
Penington, Isaac. Extracts from writings of, 10. 21. 54. 62. 102. 223. 226. 261.
Epistle of respecting Church discipline, 310.
On Justification, 356.
Extract from, on the faith which is of man, 413.
Penington, Mary. Extract from, in reference to building, 107.
Penn, William. Observations on prayer, 274.
Observations upon a true belief in Christ, 282.
Observations on the union of friends, 294.
On disappointments and resignation, 299.
On ignorance of natural objects, 302.
On religion, 317.
On the choice of a wife, 323.
Observations of, on a man-made ministry, 344.
Extract from "Rise and Progress," by, on seeking for divine virtue, 350.
Extract from, on Justification, 357.
Penn's "Rise and Progress, and key." Observations upon, 277.
Perseverance. Thomas A'Kempis' remarks on, 255.
Pestilence in India. Brief account of the late, 60.
Petroleum. The necessity for allowing for the expansion of in storing, 254.
"Pharaoh's Serpents." Method of making non-mercurial, 171.
Philadelphia. Width and depth of the Delaware river at, 335.
Phosphate of Lime. Account of the beds of, in S. Carolina, 279. 324.
Picric Acid. Explosiveness of the salts of, 34.
Pike, Joseph. Extract from, in reference to plainness, 157.
Pins. Description of the manufacture of, by improved machinery, 220.
Pitcher plant of Borneo. Account of the, 299.
Plants. Notes on. The Jute plant, 294; Effect of Pine trees on the soil, 68; Cactus of the American Desert, 199. 204; Large Grape vine in California, 140; Eve's Apple tree, 204; Plants in a Singapore jungle, 253; The Victoria Regia, 222; The Pitcher plant of Borneo, 299; The Banyan tree, 347; Poisonous plants used in capturing fish, 355, The Nibong Palm, 356; The Vegetable-tallow plant, 357; A Flower bird trap, 372; The Wulfia, the smallest flowering plant, 404; Notice of the fertilization of plants, by night-moths, 404.
Poetry, Original. Stanzas, 28; Autumnal Thoughts, 92; Is Thy Lamp Burning, 116.
Spring Breathings, 284.
Selected.—A Summer Shower, 13; All's well, 37; The Autumn of Life, 124.
"Be ye therefore ready," 37; Behold, I stand at the door and knock, 52; Be Just and Fear not, 244.
The Christian's Wants, 196; Christ's Invitation, 325, The call of the Christian, 332; Charity, 340; The Crooked-necked Gourd, 340; Christian Love, 396; Chamouni at Sunrise, 404.
Evening meditation, 188; Evening, 277.
"For now is our salvation nearer," 212; Fortitude, 244; A Father reading the Bible, 373.
The Golden Side, 204; The Good Shepherd, 260.
Humble Service, 13; He leads his own, 164; Heaven, 292; Hymn, 300; Hymn of Trust, 356.
In the mid silence, 28; "I do not ask, &c." 37; "If thou wilt be perfect," 268.
Jesus the Chief Joy, 236; Jesus only, 348.
Kindness, 332
Lines written by John Newton, at Cowslip Green, 22; Low Flying, 116; The Lambs of the Fold, 132; Lines on the death of a Friend, 236; Love Divine. 348.
Not yet, 108, Not Lost, 380.
Our Strength and Shield, 356.
Prayer answered by crosses, 45; Praying in Spirit, 77; Praise in Heaven, 100.
"Ripe and Ready," 253; Resignation, 268.
Sweet is the pleasure, 100; Sonnet, 212; "Set God before thee," &c., 140; Snowflakes, 300.
The Spiritual Temple, 4; The Sheltered Plant, 20; Trust in God, 20; The Two Cities, 84; Thoughts on Prayer, 228; To an early Primrose, 260; A true Fast, 260.
The Unprofitable Servant, 132.
The Vine, 44; A voice from Heaven, 156.
What the Sparrow chirps, 44; Watching, 68; The Worldling, 60; The Untrodden Way, 220; Who stole the nest? 292; The Wandering Wind, 388.
Pope of Rome. Observations on the doctrine of the infallibility of, 303.
The dogmas of the recent Council at Rome, in relation to the, 380.
Potatoes. Observations on the nature of the sweet matter of frozen, 171.
Power of the Gospel, and the simplicity of its teachings." Essay entitled, "The, 343.
Prairie-dogs. Account of a large settlement of, 270.
Preachers of righteousness by example. Observations on, 348. 384.
Prayer. Observations on, 125. 190. 195. 204. 211. 274. 371.
Observations on irreverent, 227.
Thoughts on (poetical), 228.
Questions and answers concerning, 242.
Providential preservation of a Friend's house, during the capture of Copenhagen, 92.
relief afforded to a starving family, 406.
Putrefaction. On the effects of carbolic acid in preventing, 147. 222. 225.

Queries of our discipline. Observation on the, 249.
Questions and answers respecting the true faith in Christ, 218.
Questions and answers concerning the Holy Scriptures, their true use and authority, 229.
Questions and answers concerning the true call to and work of the ministry, 235.
Questions and answers concerning prayer, 242.
Questions and answers concerning the ground of Friends' testimonies to plainness of dress, &c., 251.

Railroad. Remarkable series of tunnels in a European, 182.
Account of the Broadway Pneumatic Underground, 339.
Railroads. Practical hints in reference to colors for signals upon, 220.
Supposed influence of, upon the weather, 243.
Rain in Iowa. Statistics of, from 1862 to 1869, 223.
in Australia. Decrease of, following the cutting down of forests, 254.
Notice of a singular shower of, in Philadelphia, 411.
Reading. Observation on, 66.
On Fictitious, 266.
Redemption by Christ. Observations on, 321.
"Religion of Christ." Essay entitled "The, 29.
Religion. Concise view of the commencement and progress of, in the soul, 273. 281, 289.
George Fox's observations on true, 22.
Observations upon the work of, in the heart, 29. 57. 69. 226.
Dr. Wheeler's remarks upon the spread of true 156.
On the spreading of, through the example of individual faithfulness, 207.
On the grievous prevalence of surface work in, 222.
On Superficial, 395.
Religious activity. Essay entitled, 154. 162.
Extract from Samuel Fothergill on, 236.
Remarks upon, 307. 315. 412.
Remarks of Thomas Scattergood upon, and comments, 356.
Repentance. On death-bed, 110.
Report of Enoch Hoag Sup't, to Associated Executive Committee of Friends on Indian Affairs, 81. of the Managers of the Association of Friends, for the free instruction of adult colored persons, 171.
The Bee Hive Sewing School, 174.
The Managers of the Adelphi Schools, 210.
Remarks on the above, 216.
The Association for the care of Colored Orphans. Thirty-fourth Annual, 213.
Remarks on the above, 215.
of the Managers of the Institute for Colored Youth, 394.
Resignation. Extract from S. Fothergill on, 91.
Retirement. The duty of, not to be superseded by the claims of benevolence, 254.
Revivals in the Church. Essay entitled, 315.
"Rich man. Essay entitled, "The, 222.
Comments on the above, 245. 262. 283.
Richardson, John. Letter of, to Friends in Nantucket, 138.
Observations of, upon attending meetings for worship, 277.
Ridley and Latimer. Account of the martyrdom of, 383.
Rigbie, James. Fragmentary account of, 146.
Right-hand and left-hand errors. Essay entitled, 158.
River, Delaware. Width and depth of the, at Philadelphia, 335.
Road Steamers. Invention and uses of, 266.
Robins. Account of a roost of, in Maine, 239.
Rome. Dogmas recently proclaimed by the Œcumenical Council at, 380.
Rope. On the manufacture of fine paper from old, 183.
Royland, Thomas. Observations of, on the ministry, 173.
Rubidium. Observations on the discovery and properties of, 171.
Russia. The emancipation of serfs in, 407.

Salt Mountain in Nevada. Account of a, 239.
plain near Austin, Nevada. Account of a, 277.
Sands, David. Extract from, on the inward witness of the true believer in Christ, 239.
Sandwich Islands. Notes on the remains of stone implements of the aborigines of, 399.
Sargon, King of Assyria. Brief account of, 385.
Saxony. Account of a visit to the Green Vaults of, 381.
Scattergood, Thomas. Extracts from, 346, 359.
Remarks on religious activity, and comments, 356.
Schools. Extract from John Woolman, on the management and discipline of 85.
Objections to First-day, 155.
Observations on a Report of a conference of teachers of First-day, 190. 206. 242.
Encouragement of family, 263.
Epistle of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting concerning Bible-classes and First-day, 305.
Scientific Scraps, 22. 27. 34. 44. 50. 142. 147. 156. 164. 171. 180. 254. 259. 269. 279.
Scotland. Account of the tinkers of Caithness in, 102.
Scott, Job. Extract from, on silent worship in families, 250.
Extract from, on the attendance of religious meetings, 251.
Scott, Samuel. Extracts from, 90. 412.
Extract from, on following on to know the Lord, and comments, 412.
Sea. Account of a sounding in water eight miles deep, 14.
Account of disturbances produced in the, by the recent earthquake in S. America, 414.

Sea. Method of dredging for shells, &c., on the bottom of the, 68.
Remarks on the recent discovery of animals of ancient type at the bottom of the, 172.
Observations on the force and rapidity of earthquake wars in the, 142.
Sea-otter. Account of the, 263, 265.
Seal. Description of the Alaska fishery of the fur, 278. 282.
Selections and Sentiments for Scripture readers, 259.
Selections from the Diary of Hannah Gibbons, a minister deceased, 333. 341. 346. 353. 364. 374. 378. 388. 393. 410.
Self-righteousness. Anecdote concerning, 244.
Sennacherib. Account of, in connection with Jewish history, 307. 402. 409.
Serpentine Quarries, Chester Co., Pa. Account of a visit to, 396.
Serpents and venomous snakes. Notes on, 73. 83.
Notes on sea, 299.
Note on the introduction of harmless, into Martinique, to destroy the venomous "arrow-head," 404.
Shackleton, Richard. Extracts from, 37, 355.
Shells. Method of dredging for, 68.
Sheppard, Mary M. Selections from letters and Journal of, (continued from Vol. XLI.,) 3, 13. 19. 26. 35. 45. 49. 59. 66 74. 86. 92. 100, 109. 115. 123.
Ships. On missing, 350.
"Signs of Refinement in and about places of worship." Essay entitled, 167.
Silent waiting on the Lord. On, 386.
Simpson, John. Extracts from, on the necessity of true baptism, 52.
Sinai. Description of a storm in the peninsula of, 67.
Singapore jungle. Description of the, 253.
Singing in meetings for worship. John Spalding's remarks on, 61.
Slate-pencils. Account of the method of manufacturing, in Vermont, 189.
Sleep. The physiological changes produced by, 185.
Sleep and Sleeplessness. Observations on, 257.
Small-pox. Statistics showing the efficiency of vaccination in preventing, 14.
Sobriety. Observations upon, 133.
South Carolina. Account of the beds of nodular phosphates in, 279, 324.
Comments on the above, 158.
Spalding, John. Extract from, 61.
"Specious snares." Essay entitled, 375.
Spectacles. On the use of silvered glass for, 62.
Spectrum analysis. Results of, 94. 269.
Speculation. Remarks on the danger and evil of, 126. 138.
Spiders. Observations on the webs of, 11.
Observations on garden, 42.
Notes on tropical. 293. 299.
Observations on a leaf-inhabiting, 355.
The building of the web of, described, 397.
Sponge. Method of preparing for the manufacture of textile fabrics, 34.
Springs in Humboldt Valley. Notice of hot, 412.
Statistics of the loss of life in English coal-mines, 51. 142.
of the production of coal in Great Britain, 1866, 68.
of the population of the world, 100.
of the commerce of the world, 170.
of the cost of the late war in the United States, 203.
of the exports of wheat and cotton from the United States in 1868 and 1869, 292.
Steam. Application of, for moving vehicles on common roads, 267.
Steel, John. Remarkable testimony through, 286.
Storm in the peninsula of Sinai described, 67.
Stoves. Contamination of the air of apartments, caused by cast-iron, 156.
Suez Canal. Brief description of the, 90.
Summary of Events, 7. 15. 23. 31. 39. 48. 56. 63. 71. 80. 88. 96. 104. 111. 120. 128. 136. 144. 152. 160. 168. 176. 184. 192. 200. 208. 216. 224. 232. 240. 247. 255. 264. 272. 280. 288. 296. 304. 312. 320. 328. 336. 344. 352. 360. 368. 376. 384. 392. 400. 408. 416.
Sun. Accounts of the recent eclipse of the, 4. 9.
On the use of metallic films in obscuring the light of, 62.
Amount of heat annually received from the, 254.
Power of the heat of, condensed by a lens, 254.
The light of the, without effect on fire, 407.
"Sure word of prophecy," the testimony of the Holy Spirit, 237.
Swintonne, John. Account concerning, 325.

Tallow. Notice of vegetable, 357.
Tartary. Narration of a recent winter journey across the table-land of, 210. 217. 226. 234.
"Teachings of the Holy Spirit, compared with those of human reason," 133.
Telegraph wire. On the deterioration of, by intense voltaic currents, 165.
Telegraphy. Notes on ocean, 333.
"Tell Jesus." Comments on some sentiments in a volume entitled, 227.
Temptations. Thomas A'Kempis upon resisting, 220.
Testimony of the Yearly Meeting of Wales, 1794, concerning Dorothy Owen, 294.
Tin mining in Cornwall. Account of, 58.
Toads. Observations on the venom of, 181.
in gardens. Usefulness of, 294, 371.
Trees. Effects in drying the soil of pine, 68.
Abundant remains near Cairo, of fossil, 181.
Brief notice of the curious fruit of "Eve's Apple," 204.
Growth of, in the Singapore jungle, 253.
Effect of clearing land of, on the rain-fall in Australia, 254.
Notes on the banyan, and other East India trees, 347.
Trichiniasis caused by eating pork. Observations on, 331.
True Happiness. A narrative of the experience of Margaret Jackson, 89. 99.
True Heroism. Narrative entitled, 397.
Tungsten. Effect of, in increasing the power of magnets, 254.
Turtles. Curious method of capturing, 280.
Tunnel under Broadway, New York. Account of the, 339.
Tunnel. Account of the New Thames, 114.
Tunnels. Remarkable series of, in a railroad in Germany, 182.
Turkey. Of the revival of interest in scientific pursuits in, 258.
Tyre. Account of ancient, 338. 345.

United States. Acknowledgment of the Christian religion in the Constitution of, 188.
Statistics of the exports of wheat and cotton from, in 1868 and 1869, 292.
Universal and saving light. Extract from R. Barclay concerning the, 150.
Usher, Archbishop. Remarks of, upon the inward experience of sanctification, 260.
Utilization of waste products. Illustrations of, 178. 187.

Vaccination. Statistics of the efficiency of, in preventing small-pox, 14.
Vegetables. How to cook, 406.
Venom of Toads. Observations on, 181.
Ventilation. On the necessity of providing for, during sleep, 91. 185.
On the necessity of providing for, in public buildings, &c., 354.
Victoria Regia. Account of a remarkably fine specimen of, at Ghent, 222.

Walking as a means of health. On, 300.
War. Observations in regard to the payment of taxes for the purposes of, 149.
Statistics of the estimated cost, to the United States, of the late, 203.
Expressions of John Churchman, concerning the purity and ultimate ascendency of the testimony against, 230.
Comments on a half way advocacy of the testimony against, 246.
Ancient testimony of Friends against payment of commutation money or taxes, for the support of, 267.
The engagement in, by Christians condemned by a Hindoo, 335.
On the responsibility of professed ministers of the gospel, in relation to, 391.
"Waste not. How small things are utilized," 178. 187.
Watch-chains. Method of manufacturing, 50.
Water. Observations on the occurrence of ice particles in deep, 164.
Observations on the retarded ebullition of, 156.
On the corrosion of cast-iron by sea-water, 254.
Water. The evidence by spectrum analysis of the presence of, on certain stars and planets, 269.
Wealth. Observations on the unsatiable pursuit of, 93.
Weather. Statistics of the rain fall in Iowa, 223.
Supposed influence of railroads upon the, 243.
Review of the, for 7th mo., 1869-70, 411.
Whales. Notes on the "blowing" of, 61.
Wheeler, Daniel. Warning of a day of trial, by, 108. 142.
Letter of, giving a picture of the Society of Friends, 148.
Observations of, in reference to spreading the knowledge of the gospel, 156.
Remarks on a hireling ministry, 166.
Epistle of, to Friends of York Quarterly Meeting, 170.
Advice of, in reference to reading the Scriptures, 172.
Extract from, on true faith in Christ, as distinguished from abstract belief, 368.
Whitehead, George. On the doctrine of justification, 351. 356.
Whitefield, George. Anecdote of, 226.
Wigham, John. Remarks of, in reference to depending upon the labors of others for spiritual benefits, 292.
Wilkinson and Story. The judgment of truth upon, 286.
Wind. Danger from, on bridges and railroads, 22.
Wine drinking. Anecdote of the danger of social, 44.
Wisdom. Some evidences of, 230.
Wood, John. Extract from an obituary of, 254.
Woolman, John. Extract from, on the management and discipline of schools, 85.
Wood. Reasons why painting preserves, 262.
Expeditious method of seasoning, 292.
On the occurrence of "feathers" in, 302.
Women. Remarks on the misspending of time in frivolous employments by, 270.
Word of God. The Christian's Guide, The, 194.
Word of God, The, not the Scriptures, 289.
Work for Every One. Essay entitled, A, 207.
World. Statistics of the population of the, 100.
Lists of articles of export of various countries of the, 170.
Worship. Remarks on singing in meetings for, 61.
Remarks of J. Griffith on silence in meetings for, 91.
and prayer. Observations upon acceptable, 190.
Remarks on opportunities in families for silent, 250.
Remarks by one, not a member among Friends, upon silent, 269.
Observation of John Richardson upon the danger of neglecting week-day meetings for, 277.
The, which, under the christian dispensation, is ordained of God, 298. 307. 313. 321. 329. 337.
Remarks by Thomas Colley on silent, 386.

Year, 1869. A Geographer's view of the events of, 251.
Yearly Meeting. New York. Concern of, an account of the proper training of young people, in 1808, 61.
North Carolina, 1869. Extracts from minutes of, 119.
Explanation in reference to First school under care of, 159.
Ohio, 1869. Brief Notice of proceedings of, 63.
Extracts from minutes of, 126.
Observations on the payment of taxes for war purposes, by members of, 149.
Review of proceedings of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, since 1854, in reference to, 245.
Philadelphia, 1843. Brief notice of, 197.
1844. Brief notice of, 198.
Review of proceedings of, in reference to Ohio Yearly Meeting, since 1854, 245.
1870. Remarks on the approaching 270. 271.
Comments on the above, 285.
1870. Notice of the proceedings of, 287. 295.
1870. Epistle of, to its members, 305.
Remarks on the above, 317. 326. 366.
List of correspondents of the Monthly Meetings of, 327. 352.
London, 1870. Notice of proceedings of, 366. 382.
London. Of Women Friends, 1776, Epistle of, 274.
Yoke of Christ. On the subjection of the thoughts to the, 404.